

Faouzi Khatir Consultant Partner France

For over 15 years, Faouzi Khatir, an international change consultant-coach has been supporting and assisting board members, senior executives and managers to cope within rapidly changing environment and in taking new leadership responsibilities.

His skills, experience and on-going professional development highlights his passion for people, and has evolved from his experience acquired from blue chip consulting firms such as PwC, Deloitte, and international development agencies such as the World Bank Group. This drives him to focus on the development of skills of current and future leaders ensuring that their performance is optimised within a rapidly growing diverse global arena.

His sensitivity to inter-cultural mores combined with his passion for people development enables him to quickly build rapport and work closely with his clients (one2one or within their teams) to develop the requirements to become future leaders. His unique result focused approach acquired through his global consulting experience, blended with the latest tools and techniques of coaching and facilitation empowers his clients to take greater accountability for this on-going success.

Faouzi's multilingual skills enable him to facilitate, train and coach with international culturally diverse organisations both individually and within teams with the ultimate goal of high performance and optimising potential.

Faouzi is a fully trained business performance coach and META-COACH through the Meta-coaching Foundation, which is recognised by the International Coaching Federation (ICF).

He has a credential of over 2000 hours of individual and team coaching. He is also certified in a number of people development and facilitation tools such as Myers Briggs (Step 1 & 2), Belbin, Open Space Technology and Appreciative Inquiry.

He is also a certified YPO-WPO facilitator and is passionate about helping his clients get from where they are today – to where they want to be in the future. Faouzi loves to stimulate his client's creativity and he is currently training to become an Art therapist. He lives in London, Paris and the USA and is able to facilitate in French, English and Arabic.
