

Tina Huang
Consultant Partner
Taiwan

Tina is a Professional Certified Coach of International Coach Federation (ICF) since 2010 and a certified Coach Mentor since 2014. She will be certified as a Coach Supervisor in 2018. Mandarin is her native language and she speaks fluent English. Tina has more than ten years experiences in leadership development and have accumulated more than 2,500 hours in leadership and executive coaching. She is in the process of obtaining Master Certified Coach by ICF. Tina partners with leaders to be the change and make changes. Her clients included executives and leaders in Greater China and Asia Pacific. Through her coaching service, clients have inside-out breakthrough which drives authentic behavioural change.

Tina creates a safe space and a trust partnership with clients. She serves with love and compassion while holds a mirror for clients to see their blind-spots, including patterns and breakthrough opportunities. Tina provides direct communication and supportive challenge in order to help clients extend thoughts and perspectives. She supports clients to amplify their potential and strengths to stretch their ability to step out of the comfort zone. Clients will find the most suitable actions to achieve performance and life goals.

She used to work at Human Capital Department of PricewaterhouseCoopers (Taipei) and was responsible for delivering and designing coaching leadership programmes for managers to partners. Before PwC, she was project manager of International Human Resource Development Department of International Cooperation and Development Fund (ICDF, Taiwan), which provides scholarships and leadership training programmes for officials and scholars of developing countries around the world.

Tina helps leaders to escalate their leadership competencies and coaching skills. She also supports organisations to build a coaching culture for sustainable growth. Here is one of her favourite quotes:

“Go to the people. Live with them. Learn from them. Love them. Start with what they know. Build with what they have. But with the best leaders, when the work is done, the task accomplished, the people will say ‘We have done this ourselves’.”

- by Lao Tzu, Chinese Philosopher