

Cherry Mill
Consultant Partner
UK

Specialising in leadership and management development, Cherry works as a facilitator, trainer and coach with individuals and groups, developing their natural talents to be the best they can be, and supporting and challenging them to make a positive difference in their world, and create human, engaging and inspiring working environments.

Cherry designs and delivers face-to-face and virtual development programmes and 1:1 coaching programmes with a wide range of international clients, from banks, hi tech, pharmaceutical and construction businesses, to several NGO's. She has travelled extensively and worked with different cultures across Europe, the USA, Asia and Africa.

Before specialising in leadership and management development, Cherry worked for 20 years in international corporate HR. In her last role with a global computer manufacturer she was nominated 'Exemplary Leader for Europe' for embodying the company values and demonstrating 'humanity in the jungle' in her work.

Cherry is a Chartered Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development, and a member of the International Coaching Federation. Qualifications include the Advanced Certificate in Coaching and Mentoring (Merit) from Oxford Brooks University, the Post Graduate Certificate in Business and Personal Coaching from Barefoot Coaching, the TAP Certificate in Online Facilitation Skills, and an MA in Modern Languages from Oxford University. Cherry uses a range of assessment tools and is accredited in MBTI Steps 1 & 11, DiSC and SDI. Cherry wrote a book, 'Managing for the First Time' in 2000, which sold over 12,000 copies, and has been on the Editorial Advisory Board for 'People Management' journal.

Cherry's style is engaging and practical, drawing on a broad selection of business and personal development models that are simple to apply in the fast-paced environments in which most of us now work.
