

Amy Riley
Consultant Partner
USA

Amy Riley is passionate about working with leaders to simultaneously achieve their business goals, leverage their strengths and achieve their personal aspirations. Amy is pragmatic, action-oriented, and listens intently to provide customised solutions that fit the people and the situation.

With over 20 years experience coaching and developing leaders at all levels, she enables them to clarify and fully step into their unique leadership style. Amy is a skilled professional in the disciplines of coaching, execution, planning, training, development and facilitation in organisations. Recent clients include Cisco Systems, Deloitte, Novartis, Tate and Lyle, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, BP/Amoco, Clearbrook, Hendrickson International, Stepan Company, The Allstate Foundation, and Protected Tomorrows.

Amy earned a Masters of Science in Training and Development (MSTD), with an emphasis on Organisation Development (OD), from Loyola University in Chicago and a Bachelor's Degree in International Business from the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign.

Amy is a certified Best Year Yet® Coach and Tiara International Coach and a Certified Professional Behaviour Analyst (CPBA). She is also certified in the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI). She is a graduate of the American Society of Training and Development (ASTD) Human Resource Development (HRD) Institute.

Amy is a member of local and national industry organisations including the American Society of Training and Development (ASTD), Chicago Chapter of the International Society for Performance Improvement (CISPI), International Coach Federation (ICF), Chicago Coach Federation (CCF), Empowering Women's Network (EWN), French-American Chamber of Commerce (FACC), Midwest Facilitators Network (MFN), and Professional Women's Club of Chicago (PWCC).