

Joanna Bown
Consultant Partner
UK

Joanna worked in Corporate Banking with Citigroup, South Africa for ten years, for some time as a Senior VP overseeing Multinational clients across industry sectors. She partly managed the Multinational business segment for CEEMEA from Brussels and London for some months, covering 16 industries across 38 countries. Her previous experience as a Vice President in international banking allows her to understand key issues in the corporate and banking world and how they relate to a corporate client's business environment.

Based in the UK, Joanna is an Integral Coach through USA-based New Ventures West and the University of Cape Town, South Africa's Graduate School of Business' Centre for Coaching. She is MCC accredited through the International Coach Federation (ICF) with a Masters coach accreditation and over 2,500 hours of coaching and one of approx. 60 MCC coaches in the UK.

Joanna has been an Executive Coach for nineteen years and offers coaching services to corporate executives, senior management and leadership teams and professional individuals working on strategic, leadership, relationship and life challenges and transitions. Her approach includes Integral Coaching, Leadership Development, Somatic Intelligence, Systemic Constellations for Business, the Enneagram, Hogan and MBTI assessments, and human behaviour change creating Meaning, ensuring that she remains current in the learning of these disciplines to maintain a depth of knowledge in her coaching.

Integral coaching focusses on practices and self observations covering the areas of leadership language, developing the leader's body for resilience, and Developing EQ emotion, for sustainable behaviour change in leaders.

As an experienced global coach, she coaches in industries including Corporate banking, Finance and Audit, Mining, IT, Retail, Manufacturing, Pharmaceuticals and Telecommunications.

She coaches executives and leaders in global multinational organisations, as well as UK and European based corporations.