

Brigitte Deden Executive Coach Germany

Brigitte is an experienced and professional certified coach with a strong business background and deep expertise in leadership coaching. She supports organisational leaders across different nationalities and industries from the public and private sector.

Before qualifying as a coach, Brigitte spent more than a decade as business consultant with Accenture. As senior manager in Europe and Asia, Brigitte was responsible for forming and leading high-performance teams to design and implement innovative IT and business solutions for clients in the Financial Services sector. Prior to this, she had started her global career as an independent IT consultant in Indonesia after completing university in Germany.

Brigitte's client portfolio includes Anglo-American, Barclay's, BG-Group (now part Shell), Robert Bosch, Johnson & Johnson, Guy Carpenter, Teleflex Medical, Groz-Beckert, CP Kelco, Inchcape, IHG, Jones Lang LaSalle, Cargill, Emerson Process Management, JP Morgan, ANZ, Sanofi, Standard Chartered Bank, Steelcase, EON, Toll Group, Thomson Online Benefit, TechniData, the Monetary Authority of Singapore, all ministries of the Singapore government, and more than 25 Public Service Organisations including hospitals, universities and polytechnics, utilities, security and environment agencies, museums, community and art councils.

Through her coaching, Brigitte supports senior leaders and executives to develop their authentic leadership style, approach and presence. She helps fast track high potential leaders to develop a strong basis of leadership skills. She coaches leaders for transition into new leadership roles including international transitions, for leading across cultures, through change and for performance improvement.

Brigitte draws from a wide range of coaching techniques which allow her to work with her clients holistically on a cognitive, emotional and somatic level. She is PCC certified by the International Coach Federation, holds certificates in coaching from the NeuroLeadership Institute, Henley Business School, Newfield Network, and the Institute of Schematherapy, as Leadership Transition Coach from Fischer Group International, and as International Systemic Team Coach from the Academy of Executive Coaching. She is a certified facilitator of the Global Mindset Indicator from Thunderbird School of Global Management and Korn Ferry's Talent View of Leadership Performance, and an accredited practitioner of the MBTI. Brigitte received an MSc in Mathematics from the University of Cologne, Germany, and an MBA from Bradford University, U.K. She is currently undergoing Coaching Supervision training with Bath Consultancy Group, U.K.

Brigitte lived and worked in Singapore for 20+ years and maintains close ties with organisations based there. She works in both English and German.