Andre Samuels is an executive leadership coach renowned for his ability to empower individuals and organisations to reach their full potential. With over 15 years of experience in the field, Andre has honed his expertise in leadership development, team dynamics, and organisational transformation. Andre's coaching philosophy centres around the belief that leadership is not about authority but rather about influence and inspiration. He guides his clients in discovering their authentic leadership style, fostering self-awareness, and enhancing their communication and relationship-building skills. Whether coaching executives, guiding emerging leaders or working with teams, Andre's mission is to unlock the potential within individuals and organisations, enabling them to lead with purpose, resilience, and authenticity.

As a skilled facilitator, Andre designs and delivers impactful workshops and training programmes that equip individuals and teams with the tools and strategies to excel in their roles. His engaging and interactive approach creates a dynamic learning environment that promotes active participation and practical application. With a track record of driving sustainable change and fostering a culture of continuous improvement, Andre is known for his ability to challenge assumptions, inspire innovation, and guide individuals toward their personal and professional goals. His dedication, expertise, and genuine passion for empowering others make him a trusted advisor and catalyst for transformative change.

Andre Samuels completed Executive Leadership Coaching coursework from Georgetown University's Center for Transformational Leadership. Additionally, he underwent specialised training in Diversity and Inclusion at Cornell University. Andre further enhanced his coaching expertise through training at the NYC Leadership Academy, equipping him with the ability to customise coaching strategies to address the unique requirements of any organisation or team.

Andre Samuels is affiliated with the International Coaching Federation. His educational journey includes a Master's in Business Administration in Leadership from Georgetown University's McDonough School of Business and a Doctorate in Educational and Organisational Leadership from The University of Pennsylvania.
