

Edward T. Jones II (Eddie)
Consultant Partner
US

Eddie is a highly accomplished coach and facilitator with over 17 years of experience in career, organizational, and leadership development. He is adept in curriculum development & delivery for in-person and virtual audiences as a presenter, facilitator, and speaker. His expertise includes change and strategic management, people strategy and succession planning, and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion.

Eddie has led learning & development programs and is an expert in coaching individuals on communication, creating collaboration, and encouraging accountability. His strategic mindset and futuristic outlook ensure his clients are prepared for what lies ahead.

He has a personable and intentional approach to building relationships and believes that strong partnerships are the foundation for success. Eddie is solution-focused and known for motivating others to achieve results.

He is certified in Ken Blanchard Leadership and by the Association for Talent Development (ATD).