

Maria Quevedo
Consultant Partner
UK

María is a values-driven and accomplished coach and consultant with over 20 years' experience of leading teams in the commercial and not-for-profit sectors, where she held executive and senior leadership positions. She has coached founders, executives and new leaders, working in tech startups and global and community-led charities, supporting clients to lead with authenticity and perform at their best.

In her career, María has successfully supported organisations to scale up and deliver ambitious targets, driving strategies for growth and establishing processes and systems to improve performance and implement sustainable change strategies. As MD at the Raspberry Pi Foundation, she expanded the global reach of their educational programmes, supporting her team based in the UK, Ireland, the US and India to create and evolve long lasting and effective partnerships with like-minded organisations.

As a consultant she has delivered a variety of operational projects focussed on strategic alignment and internal systems, partnering leaders to bring clarity to their teams and fostering a culture of collaboration.

María is a collaborative and focused coach, working with clients to explore their values and beliefs to enable them to take control of their careers and feel aligned with their choices. María's clients value her challenging and warm approach; with her support, clients develop ways to reflect and grow to improve and sustain performance, find balance and lead a fulfilling working life.

María is a member of the International Coaching Federation and coaches in English and Spanish.
